DECLARES BABIES ARE BOUGHT

AND SOLD LIKE PUPPIES Los Angeles, Calif. Nov. 5.—"Bables in Los Angeles are being given away, or bought and sold like so many puppy dogs," declared Dr. L. M. Powers, city health officer, today, who said new laws regulating the adoption or transfer of children were absolutely neces-

"It would be impossible to say how many babies vanish each year, leaving no clue to their fate. Many babies are taken for 'adoption' by people who do not leave their correct identity and of whom we can find no trace. A few babies, of course, find good homes, but there are a great many whose fate is entirely different."

Treasure Trove Law In England In England treasure trove belongs to the crown. According to the law, if any one finds hidden treasure and conceals it for his own use he is liable to fine and imprisonment. It used to be a hanging matter. However, it may be some encouragement to English treasure seekers, if any such there be in these enlightened days, to know newspaper space, and that the laws of treasure trove only apply to such as is discovered by accident. Treasure discovered by systematic search would not come within this description; neither would finds discovered by astrological or cabalistic sciences or by the potent influence of the divining rod.—St. James' Gazette.
